

Star to Be!

(Comedy)

Shannon is very excited after meeting a theatrical agent who gives her the idea that she's on the verge of a major stardom. The thought of this type of success makes Shannon get completely carried away with the fantasy.

Shannon: so I went to see this agent today and guess what he told me?

He said I had star quality! Isn't that fantastic?

He said he had no doubt in his mind that one day I would be famous.

He said I reminded him of a young Selena Lovato... (Pause)

I think maybe he meant to say I young Selena Gomez...

Or maybe he meant a young Demi Lovato...

But hey, what's the difference? I'm going to be a star! (beat)

No, I didn't sign any papers, and no, he didn't say anything about sending me on audition.

I'm not exactly sure how all this works.

But who cares? I'm sure he'll call me soon to tell me about the first screen test. (beat)

Don't be so negative. This is going to happen. And it's going to happen soon.

He really liked me so he will be calling. Don't you think this is incredible?

I'm more than a B-movie star, and you can tell everyone you knew me when I was a nobody.

Do you think I should start signing autographs now or wait until the movie premieres?
