

TV-Show

Andrew really likes himself. Today he has his friend Josh as a guest on his show.

Good morning and welcome to my TV show. Today I will talk about how wonderful I am.

I know I talked about that yesterday, but we ran out of time and I didn't finish. So this is part two. I, Andrew, am wonderful. I'm terrific. My mom tells me so. I am great at making noises.

Except don't make the sound of the ambulance or your mom will get mad. Here are some other things I can do:

throw a baseball, hold my breath under water for a very long time, cross my eyes, tell knock-knock jokes, and run really fast.

YOU CANNOT RUN FAST JOSH! You cannot! You're supposed to be quiet anyways!

This is my show! You ruin everything! I'll tell you what, why don't you get your own show?!
